TOWN OF FISHKILL REQUESTS VOLUNTARY WATER CONSERVATION
IN THE MERRITT WATER DISTRICT

Due to a lack of significant rain fall over the spring and summer months, the Town of Fishkill is asking residents in the Merritt Water District to voluntarily conserve water, particularly outdoor water usage. Merritt Water Customers are asked to conserve water through the following methods:

- Do not wash your car with a hose, use a car wash.
- Refrain from watering your lawn.
- Refrain from washing streets, sidewalks, driveways or exteriors of structures with a hose.

Residents are asked to use good judgment to conserve this vital resource.

For additional information, please contact the Town's Water/Sewer Operator, Camo Pollution Control, Inc. at 845-463-7310.
